) Administrative Order
) No. 2004-03
)
)

Pursuant to Arizona Supreme Court Administrative Order 96-32 as amended, adopting "Administrative Rule V-A" that describes the administrative authority of Presiding Judges in Superior Court, Presiding Judges may establish court security policies and procedures to provide safe work environments for employees, litigants and users of the court, including the authority to prohibit and regulate the possession of weapons or potential weapons.

WHEREAS the Chief Adult Probation Officer of the Superior Court in Yuma County has been, and is hereby, delegated the responsibility to establish policies and procedures for the security and safe operation of facilities and buildings of the Adult Probation Department of the Superior Court in Yuma County, Arizona, subject to the approval of the Presiding Judge;

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the such authority to establish policies and procedures for security at the Adult Probation facilities and buildings in Yuma County, previously delegated to the Chief Adult Probation Officer in Yuma County is confirmed and ratified and is, further, presently delegated to the Adult Chief Adult Probation Officer. Provided, however, that the security policies and procedures established by the Chief Adult Probation Officer shall, to the extent practical and reasonable, be consistent with the security policies and procedures established by the Presiding Judge of the Superior Court in Yuma County.

DATED this 28th day of January, 2004.

Hon. Tom C. Cole
Presiding Judge of Superior Court
